

MARCH 29 2022 3:42 AM UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IMPRESSES ZULF

ZULFIKAR MOINUDDIN AHMED

So, United States Government actually put some meta to protect Zulf's life eh? It's not impressive from a straightforward point of view. They ought to have bombed Bill Gates relentlessly and physically destroyed him the moment he breached my Blood Meta. But this is an impressive maneuver nonetheless.

I am an Aristocrat of three thousand years, so I am quite aware of the subtle thumbs down on the Billy the Goats, I mean Bill Gates. It would be considered a subtle power signal saying "You won't be needed any more" to the evil Demon, the savage barbaric destructive hick illiterate charlatan. Now you see I am not the ruler of the world, and have no interest in that. But if I were, I would have had the little white baby Bill Gates slaughtered in such a horribly bloody manner that Jackson Pollock would be confused about his Red Composition looking at the walls.

Now, now, FBI, ea-see tiger. Bill Gates was born in 1955, so don't drag me off to solitary confinement screaming, "That's a threat! That's a threat! And then you'll have all the white judges in Texas signing any piece of paper stumbling over each other to punish the non-white man. It's hypothetical, not real, okay. I can be as brutal in 1955 as I wish without breaking the law in 2022.

But anyway, so United States Government is giving a subtle thumbs down to Bill Gates, huh? I must say I am surprised. I am the refined Aristocrat not them, so how come they are being subtle and refined here and I am being not all that subtle? Mysteries of the universe. Usually they're pretty coarse, bombing and destroying all sorts of dams in Korea and causing other death, destruction and mayhem. I wonder what got into them?

1. EITHER UNITED STATES DESTROYS BILL GATES OR I WILL ARRANGE A WAR IN US SOIL

I have American papers, and I love America, but I am not impressed with United States Government not destroying Bill Gates. My natural rights security is the government's purpose, and yet, claiming 'white conquest rights' which were eliminated on the eve of the second world war before Bill Gates was born, Bill Gates invaded and occupied my personal meta and cause massive harm to it using US War Power and US Industrial Power. These are war crimes according to United Nations Human Rights and Security Councils.

Let me give a blunt warning to United States Government. Either you will destroy this malevolent ultra-Nazi monster Bill Gates who plans to harm 100 million non-white Americans by similar methods, or I will draw a WAR in America by a consortium of all Asian states eventually. Do you understand clearly?

Thanks,
