IS EXTREMELY FRUSTRATED BY UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

United States Government, you are 2.1 million employees who serve the American People, the Sovereign of this nation. You have charter that tells you your purpose: to secure natural rights of all Americans. One criminal murderer cuts into an American man's Blood Meta illegitimately. India tells you clearly that breach of Blood Meta indicates criminal intent. The right decision is to kill him quickly and efficiently because it is in the interest of American people that people who have criminal intent and pose a threat to natural rights of Americans are removed so that American people are no longer in harm's way.

Why did you fail to do the obvious thing a year ago. You should have relentlessly bombed him and destroyed him physically.

American people pay for your livelihoods with our taxes. You don't have the right to exercise arbitrary discretion in this case. You risked the legitimacy of the entire nation. And then you keep going and going. Who gave you jobs at the United States Government? How did you get jobs in the organisation? You don't seem to understand the most elementary things about the way that a Republic is organised. Why did you wait? The damage to my Deep Interior is now so severe that you are now risking the elimination and delegitimisation of the entire country.

This is quite frustrating for me. What the fuck do you do exactly, United States Government, if elementary easy decisions are impossible for you?

Obviously you will have to answer for all harm done to my Deep Interior, my earnings, my livelihood, destruction to American Dream and other harm. You seem to think this will not bother you. Well it will. You might be executed at Hague, you might lose your jobs without any pension, all sorts of bad things could happen as a result.

You see the problem is that you are not understanding something. I am Asian and Asia did some considers in my Deep Interior already. Europe too. So I am not an individual threatening you. You just seem to not get it. Bill Gates is a criminal murderous scumbag who never understood American law so he was a lawless savage murderous criminal charlatan. That's all he ever was. All of his self-promotion of technology genius is fake.

I, on the other hand am an immortal genius who is an asset to the country. It is quite strange but you don't seem to understand who is who and what is the consequence of what in the world of Civilisation.

Sincerely,
Zulfikar Moinuddin Ahmed
